INTRODUCTION.

OF the several motives to this publication, that might be mentioned, there are two which ought not to be passed in silence.

The one is that the Subscribers in particular, and the Public in general, may be fully informed in what manner their benevolent contributions, to the relief of the poor Palatines, have been disposed of.

The other; that it may be known hereafter among ourselves, and other nations may also learn, how strangers, left destitute and forlorn, on these hospitable Shores, have been treated by the Inhabitants.

Be it likewise an incitement, to perpetual gratitude to that gracious Power, that has blessed us with hearts capable of commiserating, as well as with the means of relieving the distresses of our fellow creatures.

The following Letter inserted in the Daily Advertiser, August the 29th, 1764, will perhaps exhibit a clearer view of the circumstances that excited the compassion of the Public, than any other terms we can use.

To the Printer of the Daily Advertiser,

S I R,

“ I HOPE you will permit me, by means of your paper, to inform those who have the power to redress it, of the very deplorable situation of the poor unhappy Palatines, lately arrived here from Germany. They are in number, men, women, and children, about 600*; consisting of Wurtzburghers and Palatines, all Protestants, and were brought hither from their native country by a German officer, with a promise of being immediately sent, to settle at his own expence, in the island of St. John and le Croix, in America†; but by some inability, he has been obliged to decline the undertaking; so that instead of their “ being

* So they were judged to be according to report, though they were found to be only about 400.

† This was also a mistake, the grant which this adventurer had obtained was for a tract of land, situated between the rivers St. John and St. Croix, in Nova Scotia.

“ being shipped off for those places, some of them have lain during “ the late heavy rains, and are now lying in the open fields ad“ jacent to this metropolis, without covering, without money, and “ in short, without the common necessaries of life, others lie lan“ guishing under the complicated evils of Sickness, and extreme “ Want, at the Statute-hall in Goodman’s-fields, and more than “ two hundred remain on board the ship, which brought them “ over, on account of their passage not being paid for, where “ they are perishing for food, and rotting in filth and nastiness.
 “ Collections have been made at the German churches and “ chapels here several times to afford them some relief, but as “ the number, of these poor creatures, is so considerable, it is im“ possible by such means to furnish them, with a regular and con“ tinual supply, adequate to their wants ; so that, unless some pro“ vision is very speedily made for them, they must inevitably “ perish.

“ These unfortunate people would think themselves inexpressibly “ happy, if the English Government would be graciously pleased “ to take them under its Protection, to allow them for the present “ some ground to lie on, tents to cover them, and any manner “ of Subsistence, till it shall be thought proper to ship them off,
 “ and settle them in any of the English Colonies in America, “ where I doubt not, they will give their Protectors and Bene“ factors constant proofs of their affection and gratitude for such “ kindness, by behaving as becometh honest, industrious, and “ dutiful subjects to the British Government. I take the liberty “ of thus expressing the hopes and wishes of these wretched “ beings, as they have no friend to intercede for them, who has “ interest sufficient for such an undertaking, or even a knowledge “ of the proper method of application.

“ That their distresses are unutterably great, I myself have “ been too often a mournful witness of in my attendance on them, “ to administer the duties of my function : with one instance of “ which I shall conclude this melancholy detail. One of the poor “ women was seized with the pangs of labour in the open fields, and “ was delivered by the ignorant people about her in the best manner “ they

“ they were able ; but from the injury the tender infant received “ in the operation, it died soon after I had baptized it, and the “ wretched mother, after receiving the Sacrament at my hands, “ expired from the want of proper care and necessaries suitable “ to her afflicting and truly lamentable condition.

“ That the ALMIGHTY may, of his infinite mercy, incline “ the hearts of the great and good of this kingdom, distinguished “ for its charity and hospitality, to take under their protection these “ their unhappy fellow Christians, (who did not intrude them“ selves into this country, but were invited hither,) and send them “ whithersoever they in their wisdom and goodness shall think “ proper, is the most ardent prayer of, their and your most “ obedient Servant,

“ Gustav Anton WACHSEL.

“ Minister of the German Lutheran St. George's church,
 “ in little Ayliff-street, Goodman's-fields.”

THESE circumstances were no sooner made known, than multitudes of all ranks and denominations hastened to contribute, according to their abilities, to the relief of these abandoned Strangers; unfortunate we cannot call them, because by this benevolence they were soon relieved from the most pressing exigencies, and, by His Majesty's goodness, and the charitable aid of the Public, they are now on their way to possess the freedom of British subjects, with the means of subsisting more comfortably than in their native country; and by their useful labour and industry repaying the kindness of the Country that has adopted them.

That the current of Public benevolence might however be properly directed, it was thought expedient to call together such of the Contributors and others as were disposed to lend their advice and assistance in concerting the most speedy and effectual measures for the present support and subsistence of these emigrants.

Sept. the 8th, 1764.

Read the petition fairly drawn, to His Majesty's Council, which is as follows;

To the KING's most Excellent MAJESTY,

The petition of PEREGRINE CUST, GEORGE PRESCOTT, WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, ROBERT NETTLETON, Esquires, and others your MAJESTIES most loyal Subjects, whose names are hereunto subscribed.

Most humbly sheweth,

THAT upwards of 400 industrious foreign Protestants of the Palatinate, and other parts of Germany, having been seduced, from their own country, and brought into this Kingdom by the Sieur Stumpell a German officer, upon promises and assurances of encouragement and support, which he had neither authority to declare, or ability to execute; the said foreign protestants abandoned by the said Stumpell, were reduced to great distress, and very deplorable must have been their fate, had they not been relieved by the charitable contributions of many of your Majesties loyal and well-disposed Subjects, excited, and animated thereto, by your Majesties great example. That the said Contributions have already amounted to a very considerable sum, and your petitioners, who are a Committee chosen to manage the said Charity, are humbly of opinion, that the intention of this charitable Contribution, cannot be answered in a manner more advantageous to the interest and happiness of the objects of it, and for the public utility, than in applying what shall remain, after their immediate wants are supplied, and their support support here provided for, to defraying the expence of their passage, to such part of your Majesties American colonies, where your Majesty shall, in your great Wisdom, think they may be settled, with the greatest advantage and propriety.

Your Majesties petitioners, therefore do with all duty, and humility, submit their intentions to your Royal Consideration, humbly beseeching, that if your Majesty shall be graciously pleased to approve thereof, your Majesty will issue your Orders, to what colony they shall be sent, and also to signify your Royal Directions to the governour of such colony, that he do forthwith upon their arrival, give them all possible countenance, protection and support, and cause a proper district of land, in a convenient situation, to be surveyed and allotted to them, with exemption from Quit-rent and remission of Fees of survey, and other Rents and Charges, as has been usually granted in cases of the like nature, more particularly in the case of the French protestants, which have by the wisdom of your Majesties Council, lately settled in the province of South Carolina, with so much advantage to themselves, and benefit to the Public.

S I R,

THE inclosed copy of a petition to His Majesty, from us a Committee chosen to manage the charitable contributions for the support of a number of German Protestants, lately brought into this Kingdom, and a copy of His Majesty's Order in Council held thereon, setting forth that His Majesty has been graciously pleased to approve of the several proposals contained in the said petition, and to determine that these people shall be sent to South Carolina, and that His Commands would accordingly be signified to the Governor of that Province to the purport, of the several requests in our petition, will inform you of their present state, as far as relates to the Administration of Great-Britain. And moreover we beg leave to inform you, that His Majesty has been graciously pleased, to order His Master General of the Ordnance to deliver to us 150 stands of Arms, and other Necessaries appertaining thereto, for the use of the said Germans.

This Committee having already compleated the principal purpose of their Institution, by having provided for the immediate support and maintenance of these poor Emigrants while here, and having also provided for their commodious transportation to Charles-Town South Carolina, in two good ships, have now only remaining the no less essential duty of providing (as much as in them lies) for their happy establishment under your Government; and as it is with much satisfaction, that they find this falls under the care of a Gentleman so capable, and so willing to answer the gracious Intention of His Majesty, and the sanguine wishes of so many generous Contributors to this laudable Charity: and as from your well known Character we are emboldened to hope, that you will cheerfully undertake this Task, from the motives of your own Humanity, as well as that you will with all proper Zeal acquit your Duty, in the fulfilling His Majesty's Orders, relative to this point. We therefore presume to make known to you our Solicitations on this head, referring the same however to your decision in those Points, wherein your intimate Knowledge of the Colony must make you so proper a Judge, and to such observations, as his Excellency Governor BOONE will do us the favour to add in the Letter to you on this subject, which he has been so good as to assure us, he will write accompanying this.

It has been suggested to us, that it may be the interest of many People in South Carolina, to entice many of the Artificers, and useful hands in this Body, to abandon their community, nity, and enter into private services, and thereby frustrate the intention of settling them in Townships by themselves, or in such as are already in part settled by Irish Protestants and others. We hope therefore we shall not be deemed to transgress the bounds of that respect, with which we submit our opinion to yours, that we express our anxiety on this head, and presume to request your taking such measures to prevent these inconveniencies, as the necessity of the case requires, and as the nature of things will admit of. And as we are informed that we shall be entitled to a Colony Bounty, of four Pounds sterling per head Passage Money, upon bringing into the Province so many Protestant Subjects, we therefore presume to desire the favour of your Advice and Assistance, to Messrs. WOODDROP and CATHCART, Merchants in Charles-Town, whom we shall appoint our Agents, for managing every branch of this Business, as far as relates to our department, in order the more effectually to enable them to pass the same through the proper offices, and to obtain payment thereof. And we also beg you will give yourself the trouble to enable them to obtain likewise the Colony Bounty of one Pound sterling per head, (to be appropriated to buy working tools) to lay out accordingly in such things not already provided for by us, under your authority and directions.

In order to save you as much trouble as possible, in the different branches of this Undertaking, we shall order our said Agents to pay the Captains, or Agents for the Ships, in Charles Town, the remainder of Freight due to them, after all these People and their Baggage are safely landed: and they will likewise be ordered to defray the charge of conveying them to their allotted Settlements. And as it will be necessary that these helpless People should be supplied with provisions for some time untill they can support themselves, we shall order that the Colony Bounty, of four Pounds per head Passage Money, shall be appropriated to these purposes.

For your greater help in forming your Plan of Settlement for these People, we think proper to send you the inclosed return of their names, age, sex and professions, whereby you will observe that the number of them at present is about 400.

We think it proper also to acquaint you, that our Agents will have orders from us to regulate their conduct in every transaction, relating to the trust we shall repose in them by your directions, hoping in all respects they will give you that satisfaction therein, which their general conduct in Business, and good Character assures us of.

We remain with the greatest Respect,

S I R,

The following letter to Messrs. Wooddrop and Cathcart being read and agreed to, was ordered to be signed, and sent.

Messrs. Wooddrop and Cathcart,

LONDON, Octob. 9th, 1764.

Gentlemen,

AS we presume that the Hon. WILLIAM BULL, Esq; Lieutenant Governor of South Carolina, has communicated to you the contents of a letter we did ourselves the honour to write to him him lately, (under date of the 22d of September last) by way of previous notice of what His Majesty's Order in Council, and his Ministers instructions more at large will order him to do for the proper establishment, in His Majesty's said Colony, of a body of about 400 poor German Protestant Emigrants, who were lately seduced under false pretences into this kingdom: We must therefore refer you to this Gentleman for your further information of the rise, progress, and present situation of the Trust we hold as a Committee appointed by a General Meeting of the Contributors to this Charity. And as we are, (from the motives of our own Humanity, as well as from that Duty we owe to the Public) desirous to promote their commodious and comfortable establishment in such townships as the Lieutenant Governor may allot for their settlements, and as we have already communicated to him our sentiments, and solicited his aid and assistance in a private capacity, (at the same time not in the least doubting his attention to His Majesty's Orders and Instructions on this head) to accomplish this laudable End; we also think it proper for the management of the several subordinate transactions of this trust that may be inconsistent with his station, and which properly fall under the notice of merchants in your extensive scene of business, to appoint an agent and commissary for these purposes; and as you are recommended to us as fit and proper in all respects for a trust of this nature, we therefore desire you will accept thereof.

And as we have taken ample care, for the safe and commodious conveyance of these people and their effects to Charles-Town, in the ship Union, captain Smith, and the Dragon, captain Hammett; by each of which ships we send you a duplicate of this letter and the papers inclosed: we take the liberty to communicate to you such instructions as seem expedient to effectuate their establishment in South Carolina, so far as the Money under our direction may enable us; withall desiring you will in fulfilling these our orders, regulate your conduct by such directions as his Honour the Lieutenant Governor may from time to time point out to you, or as your own experience and discretion may suggest.

We desire, First, That if the company of any of the ships which carry these Palatines to South-Carolina should prove unhealthy, and should therefore by the authority of your government be ordered into quarantine in their ship in the harbour, or upon some island near Charles-Town, you will in this case give them all possible aid for their speedy recovery, and use all proper means to have them well attended and taken care of in all respects.

Secondly, That as soon as these people are safely landed in Charles-Town, you will immediately take the necessary measures to obtain on our account, and for our use, (as we import them into the province at our own expence,) the Colony bounty of 4 l. sterling per head passage-money, and 1 l. sterling per head of those of a certain age, for providing working tools, which money you must give us credit for, furnishing us with an account thereof, and appropriate to such uses as we shall therein direct.

Thirdly, That such part only of the bounty of 1 l. sterling per head may be laid out for providing working tools, &c. as may appear necessary to the proper officers appointed by the government of South-Carolina for the appropriation of this money for the purchase of such things only as may be deficient in the sundry articles of this kind which we have bought here, and which are contained in the sundry packages, of which we now inclose you an invoice and a bill of loading.

Fourthly, That you will pay the Captains or Agents, for the Ships in Charles-Town, at the rate of 3 l. 2 s. 6 d. sterling, in Carolina currency, at the course of the Exchange then current, for every whole passenger taken in at London, of which we now send you herewith an exact return, in 30 days after the said Captains have landed all their people, together with all their

their baggage, trunks, boxes, beds, hammocks, bed-cloaths, &c. and the fundry goods contained in the inclosed Invoice and Bill of Loading; and also all the remainder of three full months provisions for 180 persons in each ship, as set forth in our Advertisements unconsumed upon the voyage, together with all the packages, containing them, and all the small utensils used upon the passage; and in short, after they have fully complied with their Contract; a copy of which, and the Advertisement in the News-Papers to which it refers, is herein inclosed.

Fifthly, That after you have obtained satisfaction upon the above Points, after having settled all Accounts in consequence thereof, and after having made proper enquiries, amongst the most worthy of credit, of the Palatines in each ship, and gained sufficient Intelligence to enable you, that you will furnish each of the Captains with a certificate of their conduct, in all respects during the voyage, upon which will depend their receiving a gratuity from us, for the attention and care which they have promised us to exert, throughout this Undertaking.

Sixthly, That you will use for the immediate maintenance of these people, in Charles-Town, all the loose or broken packages of the ships provisions to be delivered to you for their use.

Seventhly, That you will save entire, and send up to their Settlements, for their maintenance there, all the whole, or unbroken packages of the said ships provisions.

Eighthly, That you will send them and their baggage, arms, ammunition, and tools, to their allotted Settlements, at the expence of this Committee, and provide a proper number of waggons, for their carriage.

Ninthly, That you will maintain them with fresh Beef, Pork, and Bread, or other good common provisions, upon their
rout

rout or journey, and for three months after their arrival upon their Settlements, appropriating the whole, or unbroken packages of the ships provisions for this latter purpose.

Tenthly, That you will maintain them afterwards, upon their Settlements only, with a sufficient quantity of Bread, untill their own grounds can produce a crop of Corn, and not exceeding the 30th of Sept. 1765.

Eleventhly, That you will buy, and send up to their Settlements, for their immediate use there, a sufficient stock of live cattle, such as one cow and one calf, also one sow, to every two heads of families having children, and a proper number of males to the above.

Twelfthly, That you will make up, and send to the Committee as soon as may be, regular accounts of your disbursements from time to time.

Thirteenthly, That you draw Bills at the current Exchange upon ROBERT NETTLETON Esq; Merchant in London, Treasurer to the Committee, for what you may want on our account, as soon as the money in your hands (arising from the said Colony Bounties) is expended. We think it proper to acquaint you, that as the accommodation of these people, and proper room in the ships for the plentiful stock of provisions, for their use in the passage, would not allow the stowage of all their baggage and effects in the ships they go in, we have therefore kept back a great part thereof, which will follow them in about ten days, in the ship Planters Adventurer, Capt. Lowley : and in order to make the more sleeping room in both ships, and as a kind of check, or guard upon their baggage, which is an object of great concern to these poor people, we have also kept back 33 of their number, who will also follow the rest, in the said ship Planters Adventure, and by which ship we shall write to you again; therefore in case of the detention of this last ship, so as to occasion any uneasiness in those those that may be arrived, we desire you will make them easy on this head. Endeavour if possible to get them moved towards their Settlements, upon leaving another small party in Charles-Town, to receive and convoy up their baggage, when it may arrive, which must also be done in waggons as before set forth, and at our expence.

As his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor is entitled to the direction of every thing relative to these people, and as we have the highest opinion of his Zeal, as a private Gentleman, for the promotion of an Establishment so advantageous for the province of South-Carolina, we have therefore acquainted him, that all our Instructions to you should be subject to his Alteration and Controul, with which we must now desire you will in every respect comply.

We cannot close this letter, without recommending in the most earnest manner, this affair to your most sollicitous care and attention; and as we have reason to fear the bad consequences, which may attend their long detention in Charles-Town, by the many attempts that will be made, to induce the most valuable members of such a community to desert their body, and enter into private services, we must therefore particularly recommend the prevention of this, as an important object of your vigilant attention.

That the ships sail the first fair wind.

That the Secretary and the Gentlemen select sixteen people to stay behind with the baggage.

October the 12th, 1764.

THE Reverend Mr. Wachfel, Mr. Kirckmann, Mr. Sullow, Mr. Baden and the Secretary, who were appointed to go with the Palatines on ship board, reported that they saw and left them safe at anchor in the Downs, in good spirits and well satisfied. Also,

That the number continuing behind, to go in the Planter's Adventurer, captain Miles Lowley, is thirty-three, which ship is to sail in nine or ten days; in the mean time they are lodged in an empty house; the baggage of the Palatines will be put on board to-morrow.

October the 16th, 1764. It was resolved,

THAT half the freight of one hundred and forty one full passengers, consisting of one hundred and eighty persons, with incidental charges, be paid to Messrs. John Beswick and Co. amounting to the sum of 459*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.* and it was accordingly paid.

That the Treasurer do pay to Mr. William Lacey the sum of 19*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* for charges and his attendance as Secretary.

October the 23d. It was resolved,

That 457*l.* be paid by the Treasurer to Messrs. Richard Neave and Son, for half of the freight, &c. of the ship Dragon.

That the four German Gentlemen do see the remainder of the Palatines embarked with their baggage.

October the 30th, 1764. It was resolved,

That the Treasurer do discharge captain Lowley's bill of freight for Palatines and baggage, amounting to the sum of 291*l.* 14*s.* by his ship Planter's Adventure.

THE

THE Committee having in this manner provided for the immediate subsistence of these Emigrants, procured them a commodious passage to the colony allotted them, interested his Honour the Lieutenant Governor and Agents of the Committee in promoting their settlement to the utmost of their power, and seen them safely embarked, they next turned their thoughts to the generous Contributors, who had enabled them to make such effectual provision for these strangers.

Let it not be surmised that the Committee are of opinion, that those who gave on this occasion, did it with a view that their good works might here be recorded; they are amply convinced, that Humanity, not meaner motives, prompted to this benevolence. Justice nevertheless is due to all, and to those who are entitled to rewards by well doing, more particularly.

When therefore the necessary business was dispatched, the Committee ordered, that a list of the generous Contributors to this Charity should be prepared, and published with this account of their proceedings; together with an exact account of their expenditures.

O

To

To the foregoing List, it would be inexcusable not to add the following circumstances, which, tho' some of them are mentioned in the News-Papers, may be depended on as Facts; viz.

“ As a Baker was passing with a basket of Bread, by a field “ in the Bow-road, where a great number of the poor “ Palatines were lying, being informed that they had nothing “ to eat for two Days before, immediately threw down his “ basket, saying, “ if that is the case, some of my customers “ must fast a little longer than usual to day:” and immediately “ distributed the whole contents of his basket, consisting of 28 “ two-penny loaves, and 10 rolls among them; telling them “ at the same time, that he would call and see them again in “ a few Days: for which generous and seasonable donation, “ they could only thank him with signs and tears, of joy, not “ being able to speak English.” This article was inserted in the Daily-Advertiser, of August the 30th. It appears that the Baker is one John Schwankenbergh of Fartbing-street Spittal-fields, who according to his promise, called upon them twice afterwards, distributing at each time 24 half-peck loaves.

Thomas Leach, Baker, opposite to Whitechappel Church, relieved the Palatines with Bread, and Money, at different times, to the amount of seven Pounds fifteen Shillings, before the Subscription for their relief was begun.

A widow woman of Whitechappel Parish, name unknown, who keeps a Turner's-shop, generously gave 100 Bowls, and as many wooden Spoons, which were likewise very serviceable.

Another person distributed in the Camp, upwards of 200 pair of Shoes and Stockings, an act of great and considerate Humanity.

Nor ought the following Instance of genuine English benevolence pass unnoticed, tho' the same under initials S. J. is inserted in its proper place.

To the Reverend Mr. WACHSEL,

S I R,

“ The inclosed Bank Note, No. K. 280, for one hundred Pounds, I send you for the relief of the poor Germans; and desire you will this day divide it among them, in such a manner as you think most prudent: and I desire you will have it inserted in the Papers, that you received this Note for this purpose, with the Number of it.

“ I am, S I R, a Friend to the distressed.

And to shew how early, how effectually, these poor peoples misfortunes, were felt and provided for, we think it not improper here to insert the following Letter, transcribed from the publick Papers.

To the P R I N T E R.

“ Your readiness in giving a place to my Letter of Thursday last, emboldens me to entreat that you would suffer me to communicate to the public, a brief account of the amazing success with which it has pleased the Almighty God to bless my endeavours therein for the service of the distressed Palatines, and to testify their most grateful acknowledgments, as well as my own, to the very benevolent Inhabitants of this Metropolis for their exceedingly liberal and seasonable contributions. When I reflect on the situation of these poor people at the time their case was related to the public, and the change that immediately succeeded, I am really lost in wonder, and overcome with gratitude!

“ Before eleven in the morning on which my Letter appeared, we received from the Tower, by order of a great Personage, 100 tents with all necessaries thereto belonging; by the same bountiful hand the freight of those on board the ships was discharged, and they were released that day. The same morning a servant arrived express from a Lady at Islington with 20/. Mr. Boldero, Banker in Lombard-Street, sent “ sent 20 l. Shortly after the Earl and Countess of Cardigan sent “ 100 l. ten Guineas came from his Grace the Archbishop of “ Canterbury ; ten Guineas from David Barclay, Esq; and sons ; “ ten Guineas signed M. W. C. S. From Batson’s Coffee“ house, 31 l. 10 s. (near 400 l. have since been received from “ the same place) ; 5 l. 5 s. from the Bedford Coffee-house ; a “ Bank Note, No. K. 280, for 100 l. and a great number of “ smaller donations. The contributions since the above have “ still increased more abundantly ; a regular account of all “ which is kept, and, together with the disbursements, shall be “ speedily made public. In the mean time I am assisted by four “ Gentlemen in purchasing suitable Cloathing, Provisions, and “ every necessary for the poor people, in providing apartments “ for the temporary reception of the sick, and of the women “ who are ready to lie-in ; in whose behalf an eminent Physician, “ a Surgeon, an Apothecary, and a Midwife, have generously “ offered their assistance. So that thus far the work of the “ Lord has prospered beyond all expectation, and I doubt not “ but it will be happily compleated by timely shipping them “ off to settle in some of the British colonies, as soon as they “ are cloathed, the sick recovered, and those from on board “ the ships properly cleansed and refreshed.

“ As it would be impossible for human beings of any rank “ (much less for such wretched objects) to make an adequate “ return for so noble, so God-like an instance of benevolence as “ has been exerted on this occasion, let me entreat the Christian “ Contributors kindly to accept all the return it is in the power “ of these forlorn strangers at present to make, namely, their “ most ardent prayers for the welfare and prosperity of this “ Kingdom in general, and that the great and wise Dispenser “ of every good and perfect gift may shower down his bless“ ings, on their humane benefactors in particular ; which is “ also the most fervent prayer of their and your most obliged “ Servant,

“ G. A. WACHSEL.
 “ Minister of the German Lutheran St. George’s-Church,
 “ in Little Ayliff-Street.” And

And here it may be requisite as an Apology for the errors and defects in the preceding List of Subscribers to mention, that most of the Names were taken down by some German Gentlemen, or others not well acquainted with the English Orthography of Names, whereby many mistakes have happened, both in point of spelling and designations, which it is hoped will not be attributed to design or inattention.

Feb. the 12th, 1765. The following extract of a Letter from Captain Smith, of the Union, at Charles-Town, to Messrs. Greenwood and Higginson of this place was produced to the Committee, viz.

“ I arrived here the 16th December, with my Cargo ; there “ were three Children dyed on the passage, and two “ women were brought to bed, so that I put on shore one in “ number less than I took on board ; they are all healthy :
 “ The other Ship has been sickly, and a great number has dyed
 “ on the passage. --- I expect to sail from this place in three “ weeks at farthest, when I shall settle the half Freight with “ Messrs. Wooddrop and Cathcart,

“ I am, &c.

The following Letter from his Honour Lieutenant Governor BULL, dated Charles-Town, December the 18th, 1764. was received. Viz.

To the GENTLEMEN of the Committee at Batson's Coffeehouse, Cornhill.

GENTLEMEN,

“ I Have the honour of your Letter by Capt. Cheeseman, re“ lating to the Protestant Germans, whose extreme Misery “ and Distress rendered them such happy Objects of your most “ generous and truly Charitable Benevolence, which does “ Honour to the British Name. Your following these poor

“ Emigrants

“ Emigrants into the Woods, with your Countenance and As“ sistance, is making your Charity, and I hope their Establish“ ment here compleat. The favourable Opinion you are pleased “ to entertain, of my rendering these good People all the Ser“ vice in my Power, I shall endeavour to deserve, by exerting “ myself on this Occasion, from every motive, which Duty to “ the King, your laudable Example, and powerful Recommen“ dation, which my own Humanity, and Attention to the In“ terest of this Province can inspire; altho’ I am too sensible “ my Ability is far below your Expectation, and the partial Re“ presentation of my Friends.

“ Upon the receipt of your Letter I gave Orders, That our “ Barracks should be prepared to receive them, that they “ might have the satisfaction of being together, and be the better “ taken Care of.

“ On the 14th instant, Captain Hammet arrived with the first “ Embarkation. Being informed that the whole number on board “ his Vessel were very sick, I ordered a Doctor on board to exa“ mine whether there was any infectious Malignancy amongst “ them, in which case the Laws of the Province, and common “ Prudence require a strict Quarantine. Upon his Report that “ there was not any infection; but that twenty had died on the “ Passage, and as many more would probably die in a few Days, “ I directed that they should be landed without loss of time, and “ carried in Carts to their Quarters, desiring a Doctor, who has “ been long employed in his Majesty’s Hospital here, to visit “ them, allotting two of the Officers Rooms for an Hospital, for “ those who were in most danger. And having Blankets, Sheets “ and other Neccessaries, belonging to the Barracks, they were “ distributed amongst them. Notwithstanding all possible care, “ twenty have died since they landed, and by the Returns of “ the Doctor there are thirty-eight of them still sick, though “ he is in hopes most of them will in time recover: Indeed “ such was the Mortality, and so offensive their Stench, that the “ Town was near being alarmed with the dread of Malignancy.

“ The surviving Sick exhibit the most moving Scene of Distress, by their Despondency and Lamentation for the loss of Parents, Relatives, and Friends; and you may be assured that they, and particularly the Orphans, shall receive every Comfort that is in my Power to give them; especially as your provident Instructions to your Agent has prevented every Want, which Money could guard against, by leaving a discretionary Power in such Matters, and Contingencies, as your Inexperience in American Climates must render you unacquainted with: And they shall be executed with a most faithful Economy.

“ On the 16th, The Union Captain Smith arrived, with his Passengers all in good Health; they are at present in a separate Wing of the Barracks, the Doctor returns ten of them sick with no danger, being only slight Fevers, and Coughs from sudden changes of Weather.

“ I have thought proper to allow them a few days to refresh themselves, and to converse with some discreet Men of their Country, in this Town, before I sent for them. As soon as I can know their Inclination, with regard to settling together or intermixing with British Settlers; and when it can be judged what number of Waggon is sufficient to transport them and their Baggage, I shall send as many out of Town as are able to bear the Journey. If their Tents had fortunately come with them, they would have afforded shelter on their Lands, till they build their Huts.

“ The most proper Place for their Settlement, as being in the richest Land will be 170 Miles from Charles-Town, to which place there is a good Waggon Road, near the Township of Hillsborough for French Protestants, Belfast and Boonsborough for Irish, between and beyond which, are many English Settlers, furnished with Stock of Cattle, and who are planting Wheat and Corn. As the nature of their establishment, which shall be as compact as the Land will allow, must occasion some separation “ by

“ by each Family’s going upon their respective Lands, some cen“ tral place must be fixed for head Quarters, where a discreet “ Man must keep and distribute their Provision weekly, because “ if served for a longer period, it might make them liable to “ wasted, when they received their ratios, and to want, before “ the next serving out ; such people being too apt to be impro“ vident.

“ With regard to the Provincial Bounty, Gentlemen, I must “ inform you, that the Act is not now in force ; that a revival “ Bill was brought in last Session, in which the Bounty-Act, “ with one Voice, was inserted ; but there being one Act that “ was exceptionable to the Council, the reviving Bill was there“ upon rejected. But altho’ these Germans arrived at an interval
 “ when there was no Bounty legally existing ; I make no doubt “ but the equity of the Legislature, whenever that Act is re“ vived, will have a retrospect to those who relied upon the “ Faith of this Province ; and I shall take Care to state the mat“ ter in the strongest light for that purpose.

“ I must do Messieurs Wooddrop and Cathcart the justice to in“ form you, that they have shewn the greatest readiness on every “ occasion, to promote your kind Intentions, for the welfare of “ these poor People. They speak favourably of their Captains, “ but the difference in point of health, between the two is re“ markable, when your Care in every respect was equally dis“ tributed in fitting out both.

“ There are many Germans in Town, and I have desired “ several of them frequently to visit, and by their hospitable no“ tice, to keep up the desponding Spirits of your poor Emi“ grants, which they have done with great kindness, and “ indeed sometimes, so retarded their recovery, by giving “ them Apples and the like ; which with over-eating, upon “ weakened Stomachs, has occasioned several dangerous relap“ ses, altho’ Nurses were appointed to look after them.

“ I have now, Gentlemen, given you a very minute account “ of

“ of the present situation of these Germans, if it is too tedious, “ you will do me the justice to impute it to my desire of remov“ ing the Anxiety, with which I am sensible you wait to hear “ of their welfare. I shall do myself the Pleasure, as soon as “ they are all arrived on the Lands, which I shall allot for their “ establishment, to give you a particular account of the part of “ the Country where it lyes, of their progress, and of the “ future Improvements which their Industry may make, for “ the benefit of Great-Britain or themselves; and I shall upon “ this, or any other matter, which you shall recommend to my “ attention, take great pleasure in executing your Commands,
 “ and shewing how much I admire your public-spirited Huma“ nity, and with how much truth and respect I have the ho“ nour to be,

“ GENTLEMEN,

“ Your most obedient

“ Humble Servant,

Charles-Town, December
 the 18th, 1764.

WM. BULL.”

This Letter being read and considered, the Committee resolved unanimously, That an Answer be returned to Lieutenant Governor BULL, expressing the high sense the Committee entertain, of his speedy and effectual assistance to the poor Germans; to thank him for his obliging promises to expedite their settling, to interest himself so particularly in their success, and to use his endeavours in procuring them the bounty heretofore allowed to foreign Protestants by the Colony.

Resolved, that a present be made to Mr. Drummer, of five Guineas, for his Care and Labour in distributing the Provisions to the Palatines, from the time of their landing in England, to their embarking for South Carolina.

Batson's Coffeehouse, Feb. 19, 1765.

The following Letter from Captain Smith was read, viz.

 “ principal of the Palatines, testifying my great Care and good “ Behaviour towards them; from these you will observe that I “ was indefatigable in my Endeavours to accommodate them, “ and to preserve their health, this, besides the great fatigue it “ occasioned me, was attended with a considerable expence
 “ to me in Wine for the sick people, &c. all which I hope you

 “ most thankfully acknowledge my obligation to you. I am most

“ We do hereby certify that we have enquired of the most sen-

 “ place, he in every respect used them with the greatest Huma“ nity and Kindness, and that he took all the Care in his power

Extract of a LETTER from Messrs. WOODDROP and CATHCART, dated Charles-Town, Jan. 12, 1765.

TO ROBERT NETTLETON, Esq; and the rest of the COM-MITTEE for the Relief of the Palatines, &c.

GENTLEMEN,

“ We were Honoured with your Favour of the 6th October “ by the Dragon, Capt. Hammet, with Copy of your Agree“ ment

“ ment with his Owners for the Passage of the poor Palatines “ you have so generously Assisted, also Invoice and Bill of “ Lading for sundrys for their Use, the Contents of which we “ have received. —————

“ We have carefully perused your Orders, and hope we “ shall be able strictly to execute them; and are glad we can “ assure you that we have all the Assistance that the Lieut.
 “ Governor’s Kindness, and Humanity can give us for that “ purpose. We have also received all the whole and broken “ Packages of Provisions that were left.

“ Capt. Hammet’s Passengers arrived in a pitiful Condition, “ from Sickness they had contracted on the Voyage; twenty of “ them died on the Passage, and the greatest part of the others “ were in a deplorable Condition. On their Arrival they were “ visited by a Physician of Skill, Candor, and Experience; who “ reported to the Lieut. Governor of their Sickness, that it re“ sembled what they call in England the Goal Distemper; the “ Lieut. Governor thereon ordered Capt. Hammet to bring up “ his Ship and land them near the Barracks, about a Mile distant “ from Charles-Town; which were in good Order to receive “ them, and are capable of Lodging 1500 Men commodiously; “ before they landed fresh Beef, Bread, Greens, and Roots were “ sent on board and ready for them on their landing at the Bar“ racks; where they were attended by Doctor Millegen, a “ Gentleman well acquainted with Camp Hospitals; whose di“ rections with regard to the Sick we have ever followed, and “ provide for them whatever he directs; we have enquired of “ the most creditable and indeed of every one (by Interpreters) “ what Treatment they had received on board, and all agreed “ that Capt. Hammet had treated them with the utmost Kind“ ness and Humanity, and gave the Sick the greatest part of “ the Provisions he had for his own Store. A few days after“ ward arrived Capt. Smith of the Union, his Passengers were “ all in health, he lost only three Children on the Voyage, and “ had two born on board, so that his number was only one less “ than he brought from England; we have enquired of all the “ Passen-

“ Passengers of Capt. Smith's Behaviour, who all agree he did “ every thing in his Power to help and assist them.

“ Fourteen Men with their Families making in all fifty, set “ out for their Settlement the 9th Instant, they with their Bag“ gage and Provisions take up seven Waggon; the Provision “ was out of what was landed, sufficient for a Journey of ten “ Days, with the help of a Steer to be got on the Road; we “ gave each Man a Musket and Bayonet, some Bullets, and “ twenty-five pound of Gun-Powder amongst them, which we “ shall take from what is coming by Capt. Lowley for them;
 “ we also gave each Man an Ax, Hatchet and Hoe, and three “ Saws, and a parcel of Nails amongst them to prepare Houses “ for themselves.

“ The Lieut. Governor has given Warrants to proper Sur“ veyors to run out Land for those that have gone up: On their “ Arrival here he gave Orders to build a large Log-house for “ them, and an Oven; he has also appointed one of them the “ most to be depended on to be a Steward, to distribute their “ Provisions.

“ As it is your Intention that we should avoid the least foun“ dation for Complaint, we have been at the Expence of six “ Nurses for the Sick, which has been the means of recover“ ing many of them.

“ Notwithstanding the Governor's Orders, and any Influence “ we may have over them, several, (perhaps eight or ten) of the “ Men refuse to go up to their allotted Settlement; being Trades“ men, they want to remain in Town; and this seems not in “ the Governor's power to prevent, which we are sorry for, as “ it is your desire they should make a little Township by them“ selves.

“ We shall in a few Days settle with Capt. Smith, and Capt.
 “ Hammet, as to the Freight or that part of it payable here: The “ List you was pleased to send us of the whole and half Freights, “ makes that Adjustment easy. By the last Article of the Agree“ ment with the Owners of the Ships; it seems that you were to “ pay for 140 whole Freights, and by the 4th Article of your “ Instructions we are ordered to pay 3 l. 2 s. 6 d. Sterling in this “ Currency at the common rate of Exchange, for every whole “ Freight taken in at London, which shall be complied with “ and shall draw on you for the same; of the other Charges we “ have been at, we cannot yet give you an exact Account; but “ certainly shall when they leave Town, at least as far as is then “ incurred.

“ By the Account now sent you of Provisions that we have “ received out of both Ships, you will observe we have got more “ of every kind than we could have expected or demanded, as “ they were only ten Days short of three Months on their Pas“ sage; whatever we have received shall be turned to the best “ Account towards saving fresh Provisions; their small Sea-“ Utensils we also put the most to their use we can, and you “ may depend that the greatest regard shall be had to your Or“ ders, and the conveniency and good of the poor People, “ you have recommended to us. We respectfully are,

“ GENTLEMEN,

“ Your most humble Servants,

“ WOODDROP and CATHCART.”

The Reader will doubtless be solicitous to know from what cause could proceed so great a Mortality in one Ship; such uninterrupted health in another and of nearly equal burthen; fitted out in the same Port, at the same time, with the like Provisions, and an equal number of Passengers.

The Committee have examined into this Affair, with all possible Attention. The surviving Passengers, upon the closest enquiry, confirm that good Opinion of the Captains Humanity, Diligence and Care, which his former Conduct has acquired.

One important Circumstance however has occurred to the Committee, which as it may be of service to future Embarkations, ought not to be concealed from the Public.

It is well known in the Neighbourhood of this City, that the Months of August and September, while the Germans lay Encamped were remarkably hot and dry.

That

That incredible Numbers of the City-populace daily crowded about these People, adding to the Dust, the stifling Heats, and unavoidable Ill-consequences of a Multitude confined in a narrow Space.

Many of the Germans were taken ill of Fevers, resembling those of unhealthy Camps; and divers thus affected were carried on board Capt. Hammet's Ship. Those who had the charge of this Embarkation would gladly have prevailed upon the Sick to stay till they were recovered, but in vain; the Sick themselves and their Relations, pressing for a speedy Departure.

The Sicknefs thus carried on board, spread itself to others; the fear at last became General: and fear in these Cases, is little less than Fatality itself.

Doctor Millegen's Report of the Nature of the Fever confirms this Opinion, as it is supposed by Physicians that the Goal and Camp Fever are mostly the same in kind, though differing sometimes in particular Symptoms. This obvious instructive Hint will occur from these Remarks: That when numbers of People are to Embark in the same Vessel, and for a long Voyage, no Person in a Fever apparently of this kind, ought upon any account whatsoever to be admitted amongst them.

For at Sea, the Sick cannot be removed beyond the sphere of Infection, as upon Land; and the Assistants only be left exposed to Danger. In a Ship, every Individual is within its Reach, and without the possibility of an escape.

From the best Information the Committee have been able to obtain, it appears, that all who were put on Board Capt. Smith's Vessel, which sailed only a few Days before Capt. Hammet, were quite in Health: This strengthens the Suspicion, that the real Cause is here assigned for the Mortality in the Dragon.

The Committee thought it not improper to suggest these Reflections to the Public, though with just deference to the Opinion of better Judges.

From the Letters received from the Lieutenant Governor, and the Agents to this Committee the Reader will observe, that the Act for granting this Bounty was expired before the Arrival of these Emigrants. Nevertheless, the Governor and Assembly, entered so thoroughly into the benevolent Intentions of His Majesty, the requests of the Committee, and the Distress of these poor People, as to engage in this affair with the utmost Expedition: The Governor in his Speech to the General Assembly which met January the 11th, 1765, acquaints them, “ That during their recess a considerable Number of German “ Protestants have arrived here, whom His Majesty has been “ graciously pleased to order to be settled in this Province in a “ body; part of whom, are already set out of Town for that “ purpose.

“ That these unhappy People, brought into England by a “ person unable to perform his Engagements to them, were left “ destitute, and fell into the most extreme Distress in London; “ from which as soon as it reached the Royal Ear, they were “ raised by His Majesty’s compassionate and bountiful Hand, “ and a Number of Gentlemen in London, led by the great “ Example of the King by liberal Contributions, provided for “ their Subsistence, and to render the Charity compleat, extended it to their Establishment in Carolina, until their own “ Industry may supply them on their own Lands.

“ Notwithstanding all Precautions taken by the Committee “ of London, intrusted with the Management of the charitable “ Contributions for the Support of these poor Germans, to secure their Health, during the Voyage, the Passengers of one “ Ship arrived very sick, that he had lodged them in the Barracks, ordered them Blankets, and other Necessaries from the “ Stores there, a Physician, and Nurses to attend them. That “ by these means, under God’s Blessing, though several died “ soon after their Arrival, the rest were now on the Recovery.—
“ The Committee of London, have desired that the Bounty “ usually given to new Settlers, may be paid to their Agents “ here, to be applied towards the Subsistence of these Emi“ grants ; which although that Law is not at present in force, “ he doubted not, from the good faith, which this Province has “ always maintained will be readily complied with : That he “ could not forbear being thus particular in communicating this “ Event to them ;” and adds, “ This noble Instance of private “ British Charity warms me, and must affect yours and every “ humane Heart, with a most sensible Pleasure : As it demands “ our Praise, it will, I am certain engage our Imitation.”

To this Speech the Council reply “ That while they find “ themselves greatly affected, at the Distresses of the poor de“ luded Germans, their Hearts glow with a very sensible Plea“ sure when they reflect on the noble Instance of British Bounty, “ they experienced in the speedy Relief afforded them by the “ liberal Contributions of their Fellow-subjects at home, in“ fluenced thereto by the great Example of their most Graci“ ous Sovereign ; they assure his Honour that they would con“ tribute every thing in their Power to compleat the happy “ Establishment of these Emigrants, and perfect the Work which “ his Honour’s great Care, and Attention to their Health and “ Prosperity had so well begun.”

The Commons House of Assembly of the said Province, likewise acquainted the Governor “ That he might be particu“ larly assured, that all due Attention should be paid to his “ recommendation concerning the German Protestants, and “ though the law relative to this Matter was not at present in “ force, yet that good Faith which this Province has always “ maintained, and which his Honour made them happy in de“ claring on this Occasion, doubted not would be maintained, “ shall be readily complied with.”

From these Circumstances the Committee have the strongest Reasons to apprehend, that the same Bounty will be granted to these people, as hath been heretofore allowed to foreign Protestants settling in Carolina ; and that notwithstanding the unavoidable Expence of their Embarkation, Subsistence and Conveyance to their Settlements, and some incidental

dental charges here, not yet ascertained, there may still remain a Balance in the Treasurers Hand. This be it what it may, shall be faithfully reported to the Contributors, as soon as the Accounts can be closed, which the Committee expect will be in the course of a few Months.

The Committee are not ignorant that some attempts have been made to depreciate the Kindness of the Public on this Occasion; but to every considerate person the Relief of these poor People must appear an Act of absolute Necessity, and against which no reasonable Objection can be framed.

In respect to the mode of relieving them, the Committee do not recollect any Expence that could have been avoided; at the same time that they wished to help these unfortunate Strangers effectually, they did not forget that Frugality ought to accompany every act of Public Benevolence.

To provide for their immediate Subsistence was unavoidable. The Public feeling of their Distress soon supplied the means of doing it and more: It then became necessary to consider of their farther Destination. To send them back to Germany would perhaps have been the smallest Expence; But it was against their Inclination, and would perhaps have been entailing upon them both Want and Disgrace.

It admitted not of a Doubt, but as it was their Inclination, so it would be a Public Benefit to send them to some of our Colonies, whereby they might at once get a comfortable Livelihood, add Strength to the Province they were sent to, and repay to this Country the Obligations conferred on them, by their future Industry.

Autumn was beginning when they arrived here: and Winter would have been commenced in the Northern Colonies before they could have got thither. There they must have been long maintained at a great Expence, before they could possibly have procured from the Earth the least Support.

South-Carolina has not its Proportion of white Inhabitants: the Winters are mild and short, and the Earth early capable of Cultivation. It soon affords sufficient Subsistence, and being warm, requires less Cloathing.

The generous Encouragement given by the Inhabitants of that Province to useful Strangers was another Motive: and tho' this source of Relief was then dried up, it has been opened on this Occasion with a Chearfulness and Dispatch that does Honour to every branch of the Legislature.
